

Kia Hono: Kia Awe – Cultivating Connections: Inspiring Solutions

Closing Thoughts

Nikki Chilcott

Conference Themes

- Obesity, poor nutrition and reduced physical activity remain significant public health issues.
- Action to address these issues often sits beyond the responsibility and capabilities of the health sector.
- Climate change and declining fossil fuels pose risks to the life we have become accustomed to.

Working Across Sectors

- Councils
- Transport
- Education
- Agriculture
- Employment

Power of Communities

- Communities action does make a difference
- Local solutions are relevant and engaging
- Lift our gaze to new opportunities
- What is important to communities

Moving Forward
